

Follow-up duration differs systematically between cohorts

Median 4.75 y (IIH) vs 3.42 y (control)

Longer exposed follow-up combined with contact-dependent outcome ascertainment is the classic differential-surveillance pattern, and is the reason the primary estimand is truncated.