

Three kinds of absence, kept apart

Only the grey segment is data. The three coloured segments must never be imputed as negatives.

Red = the variable was never extracted for one whole cohort (all imaging and EEG in controls; all dates and race in cases). Amber = the scan or test could not answer the question: an unassessable scan is NOT a negative scan.