

Timing of the excess seizure risk

Time-split Cox model. Test for change over time: $p = 0$

The 0–6 month window is omitted: NO IIH case can have an event there, because the protocol's 180-day presenting–seizure rule was applied to cases only. The risk is sustained rather than concentrated at diagnosis, which argues against pure work–up detection.