

Negative-control outcome: the specificity check

Female matched sets, 3-year horizon. Carpal tunnel has no plausible causal

The carpal tunnel hazard is null while the seizure hazard is clearly elevated. If the des simply measuring greater healthcare contact among IIH patients, BOTH would be elev This is the strongest single piece of evidence that the primary result is not pure ascer