

Effect modification, tested by interaction

Dotted green line = overall estimate. Subgroup HRs are descriptive; only the interaction p-value tests modification.

With 112 events, power to detect modification is low: a large interaction p-value does NOT establish a uniform effect. The male estimate rests on 20 events and male matching used no calendar-year constraint (v2.0 change #6). The BMI interaction is the one signal worth following up.