

Absolute risk in the whole cohort, per 1,000 patients

The same split, on the cohort denominator rather than on the seizure subgroup.

Numerators are the outcome-positive patients classified in the unit chart; denominators are all patients at risk after the symmetric 180-day washout. Control bars in grey, for the reason given above: the split within the control arm is not a comparable quantity, though the control total is.