

What the association means in absolute terms

Aalen-Johansen cumulative incidence at 3 years, death treated as a competing event

NNH = number of ITH patients followed three years for one additional seizure. Absolute risk differences are small in every subgroup: even the largest, in men, is about 3 extra seizures per 100 patients over three years. Subgroup differences here are descriptive; the formal interaction tests are in the subgroup forest.