

Every negative control falls toward the null; seizure rises

All 12 outcomes individually. Orange, negative controls; blue, the primary outcome

Negative controls change by -18.8% to -42.6%, all toward the null; the seizure estimate changes by +12.6%.
An outcome generated purely by differential detection would be expected to behave as the controls do.